MAINE NEWS.

FROM BIDDEFORD.

A Desperate Assault.

BIDDEFORD, July 6. At West Lebanon, July 4th, James Perkins and John D. Blaisdell committed an assault upon Stephen Dixon. The probabilities are that the latter will die from his wounds. The assailants were arrested and brought before Justice Oakes of South Berwick, and the examination was continued to Monday next, at West Lebanon, when County Attorney Lunt will personally have charge.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Serious Fire at Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER, July 6. A fire broke out last evening in the storehouse of Swett & Co., Commercial street, destroying that and several other buildings. Several vessels were injured slightly and the roof of Joseph Friend's building on Spring street. Damage between $25,000 and $30,000. The losses with insurance are estimated as follows: Swett & Co., $20,000; insured for $2,600 in Atlas of Hartford, and $4,000 in Pennsylvania of Philadelphia; Pettingill & Cunningham, $1000; insured $2,500; J. M. Bacon, $1000; uninsured; Mrs. Geo. H. Rogers, $500 on building; insured; Geo. Marsh, $300 on building and contents; insured. The fire is believed incendiary.

ARKANSAS.

A Desperate Encounter.

ST. LOUIS, July 6. A special from Prescott, Ark., says: Saturday Deputy Sheriff White with Dr. F. M. Millam and Rev. F. Saunders as posse started in pursuit of James Thompson, a notorious horse thief. On the night of the 3d the reached the house of Throg Lewis, head quarters of horse thieves and outlaws from Arkansas, Texas and Louisiana, where they made inquiries for Thompson. A fight immediately ensued in a back room and Rev. Mr. Sanders, one of the oldest and most respected ministers of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, was killed at the first fire. Millam and White then riddled the murderer of Sanders with four loads of buck shot.

FOREIGN NEWS.

RUSSIA'S WAR.

ABOUT SISTOVA AND TIERNOVA.

A RUSSO-GERMANIC ALLIANCE.

Great Battle Coming.

Desperate Fighting.

NEW YORK, July 9. A Pera despatch of the 4th, says: Muktah Pasha advanced close to Kars. The line of retreat of the Russians is menaced by Falk Pasha who advanced to the northward of Bayazid environs of Van Swarm with the Kurds from the mountains to harrass the retreating Russians. The Cossack cavalry suffered awfully from constant attacks and surprises by those irregular allies of the Turks. At Bayazid, recently captured from the Russians, the invaders fought desperately and the Turks attacked with the fury of fantics and with vigorous shouts of "Allah." The Turks secured a large quantity of stores, as Bayazid formed a depot for a considerable portion of the Russian left which was endeavoring to flank the Turkish position.

Bad Management.

Private correpondence of Russian officers intercepted by Turkish scouts, furnishes full accounts of the recent disasters by the Russians and the writers indulge in bitter regrets over the bad management of their Generals.

The Russians, Sistova and Tiernova.

A Bucharest despatch of the 4th says: "Nothing has been heard from Sistova for several days, all military news being stopped. The indications are that the Russians have fought successful battles at Blela and Siernova. Supreme efforts will now be made by the Russians on the Danube to make up for reverses in Asia Minor. Tiernova is still the scene of fiercely contested battles. The Turkish inhabitants of all the towns in the provinces occupied or approached by the Russians, are flying under the impulse of the double fear of the Russians and of their hostile neighbors. The headquarters of the Russians are now firmly established at Sistova from which it is inferred a further advance will speedily be made.

[A Russo-Germanic Alliance.

A London despatch says Austria recently proposed a joint mediation of itself and England between Russia and Turkey after a battle, which proposition was accepted by England. All efforts are now being made, it is reported, by Germany to prevent any such mediation by such a combination, and efforts are being now made to have the Emperors of Russia and Austria meet each other. Bismarck is reported to be corresponding with Andrassy with this view. The fact of a close alliance between Germany and Russia has had considerable weight with England. At Woolwich arsenal everything is ready to despatch an army corps in twenty-four hours. All war material is in perfect readiness for shipment; even baggage-wagons and harnesses being laid out for its use.

Kars.

It is stated at Vienna that the Russian besieging force at Kars advanced to Ardost to effect a junction with the lately-defeated corps of Gens. Tergusakoff and Hermann. A battle is imminent at Ardost, and it will probably decide the fate of Kars.

An Important Movement.

A despatch from Simnitza states that arrangements are progressing for a general advance into Bulgaria. All is bustle and preparation in the Bulgarian camp, and many days cannot elapse before an important movement takes place. Gen. Gorolikba will command the division assigned to the special service, and will consist of the riflemen of the Bulgarian Legion and four cavalry brigades.

The bridge across the Danube at Sistova is now completed and is the scene of unusual activity. Troops and vehicles of all kinds are continually passing from the Roumanian to the Bulgarian side, and the army will soon be completely supplied with necessaries. The advance cannot be delayed many days and a decisive battle may soon be look for.

Ardaban Evacuated.

Kernan's London despatch says: Advices from Asia Minor report the Russians evacuating Ardaban, The Cossacks have been mobilized and ordered to reinforce the Armenian army.

The Greeks.

Kernan's Constantinople despatch says owing to the Greeks becoming more restless Mehemed Ali has been ordered to proceed with his force to the Greek frontier.

Roumania and Austria.

LONDON, July 6. A special says the Roumanian government, before sending troops across the Danube, inquired how Austria would regard such step, and was informed that as long as the Roumanian army respected Servian neutrality the Austrians would remain indifferent to its movements.

The Russian Retreat in Asia Minor.

A despatch from Berlin says Russian official intelligence thus explains the occurrences in the Asiatic theatre of war.

General Melikoff having reached Araxis Valley by way of Kars and Kaglsman was marching west in the direction of Erzeroom, when the Turks occupying the fortified position of Zewin, menaced his right flank to prevent the attack in front and rear, Melikoff before proceeding further west had to turn north and attack Zewin. The attempt failed and Melikoff fell back to Araxis Valley, where he heard that the southern column under Tergukassoff, which was to have met him there previous to joint in the march on Erzeroom was likewise defeated near Delibaba, and had retreated. Tergukassoff is seemingly determined to retrace his steps to the frontier and rescue Bayazid, while Melikiff, according to latest intelligence, intended to take up position in Araxis Valley and hold the road to Kars against the victorious force from Zewin.

A Serious Battle.

SHUMLA, July 6. A battle was fought yesterday in the vicinity of Biela, which lasted 12 hours. The Russians were repulsed with considerable loss and fell back on Sistova. No details.

A dwelling house owned and occupied by Mrs. William Betts, of Holden, was destroyed by fire on the night of the fourth. The fire was discovered about eleven o'clock, and the house together with the contents were entirely consumed; cause unknown; loss about $1,000; insured for $500.

CONUNDRUM. There is a man in Glenburn who is brother-in-law to his daughter; father-in-law to his brother-in-law; grandfather to his nephew and uncle to his grandson. His wife is mother-in-law to her brother; grandmother to her nephew; mother-in-law to her sister-in-law. What relation will this couple's children be to the grandson's children?

By reference to another column it will be seen that the popular steamer Katahdin will make an excursion to Boston Sunday morning. She will leave at nine o'clock and will touch at all the usual landings and arrive in Boston Monday morning; leaving the same evening and arriving in this city Tuesday noon. This will give all a chance to make a very pleasant excursion at a very little expense.

HORSE-POWER VS. RAILROAOD. It seems strange to us to be informed that some of our Presque Isle friends are actually hauling all their goods by team from the Houlton depot in preference to taking them by the narrow-gauge railroad via Fort Fairfield, claiming to make thereby a considerable saving. What can be the cause of this? Is the tariff too high or are the accommodations too limited? We had supposed that experience had proved the inability of horse-power to compete with steam, but the Presque Isle merchants would not employ teams unless they found it to their advantage. We believe that some of the managers of the railroad appreciate the policy of affording inducements for all this traffic, but there is a hitch somewhere that has prevented the adoption of a remedy. It is poor policy for a railroad to drive freight off to the old methods of transportation.

THE GLOUCESTER FIRE. The following account of the fire at Gloucester which destroyed the property of Swett & Co., who are also engaged in business in this city is taken from the Boston Globe of Friday:

At 10.15 o'clock last evening fire was discovered in the buildings used by Swett & Co. at their wharves on Beach street near the fort. The firm is extensively engaged in lumber business both here and at Bangor, Me. The building, including the contents, and also the wharf on which it stands, were entirely consumed, and the fire extended to the premises occupied by Pettingill & Cunningham, who are engaged in the fish business, burning the wharf and one side of their fish house, in which was fish in the process of curing to the value of $5,000. In this building in the loft was a number of hundred of fish barrels belonging to J. M. Bacon, which were thrown in the harbor to save them. From this building the fire extended to a building belonging to George J. Marsh, used for storage, which was entirely consumed. The total loss thus far cannot be less than $20,000 to $25,000, which is partially covered. Swett & Co.'s loss $20,000; insurance is $2,600 in the Atlas of Hartford, and $4,000 in the Pennsylvania of Phlirdelphia, which is the total on his property; 2,500 on Pettingill & Cunningham's stock, which will cover their loss, in the Ætna of Hartford and one other company. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin.

HOWES CIRCUS. Howe's Great London Circus and Sanger's English Menagerie of trained wild beasts will exhibit in this city this afternoon at two, and this evening at seven o'clock, on the Lime street grounds. We are informed by gentlemen who have seen their performances, that this is undoubtedly the best company on the road, and that everything is performed just as represented on the programme. The grand street procession with its massive chariots, beautiful horses, brilliant trappings and fine music by two full brass bands, will take place at nine o'clock and will probably be one of the most gorgeous street pageants ever made by a circus company in our streets. The wonderful leaping of O'Brien, who turns a double somersault over five elephants, the various acts of horsemanship by Mdlle Dockerill, and the five performing elephants whose difficult feats have been the wonder of all who have witnessed them, and the performing horse trained and introduced by Mr. R. H. Dockrill, are a few of the principal features of the exhibition. At five o'clock this afternoon the elephants will be taken to the river above the lumber docks to bathe, which will undoubtedly attract a large crowd. At the close of the circus performance there will be a concert under the direction of Mr. Lewis H. Davis, formerly of this city, who stands without a rival as the champion delineator of Ethiopian character. Unlike most of the concerts given in connection with a circus this is spoken of in the highest terms of praise.

Police Court.

Yesterday, Judge Goodenow being absent, the following cases were tried by N. L. Perkins, Esq., Police Court Recorder: Edwin Duffy, Sabatis Tomer, Sabatis Mitchel, George Tobin and John Turner were each fined $3 and costs for drunkenness.

FROM KINGMAN.

Musical Entertainment on the Fourth.

Mr. Editor: I am glad to say that the laidies of Kingman had too much energy and patriotism, and too much appreciation of the blessings of quiet, happy homes and a free country, to let the day pass without proper recognition. Mrs. G. W. Fogg, the moving spirit in the drama, is too well known in the Penobscot valley and her entertainments have too often been the subject of justly merited encomiums from the press to need any word from us. The singing of National airs and populuar songs elicited much applause from a large and appreciative audience. The singing and acting in "Grandma's Birthday" and "The Little Brown Jug" was highly creditable to both teacher and pupils. But the most striking feature in the entertainment was the "Presentation of the Queen" by Hortense Shaw, Emma Lewis, and Frances Williams, three little girls about ten years old. The well cultivated, sweet and birdlike voice, clear articulation and perfect self-control of Hortense Shaw quite charmed all listeners. As she retired from the stage, accompanied by her Maids of Honor and burdened with flowers, the profound silence was broken by such rounds of applause as any "star actor" might well be proud of. After the concert the remainder of the night till broad daylight passed in "tripping it to and fro on the light fantastic toe." Excellent music was furnished by Mr. Rowe, of Bangor, assisted by Mrs. Fogg and Mrs. Grant. *

THINK FOR YOURSELF.

Thousands lead miserable lives, suffering from dyspepsia, a disordered stomach and liver, producing biliousness, heartburn, costiveness, weakness, irregular appetite, low spirits, raising food after eating, and often ending in fatal attacks of fever. THEY KNOW THEY ARE SICK, yet get little sympathy. The unfailing remedy, which is yearly restoring thousands, is DaCosta's Radical Cure. Sold by Wm. E. Mann, J. F. Patten, N. S. Harlow, Bangor. R. B. Stover, Bucksport A 25c bottle will convince you of its merits. Don't delay another hour after reading this, but go and get a bottle, and your relief is as certain as you live. Will you do it or will you continue to suffer? Think for yourself.

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Pinckney, Jackson & Co., of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not only absolutely pure, but are without a doubt the finest ever imported into this country. I confidently recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC. In the experienced atmosphere here during the summer months, the lethargy produced by the heat takes away the desire for wholesome food, and frequent perspirations reduce bodily energy, particularly those suffering from the effects of debilitating diseases. In order to keep a natural healthful activity of the system, we must resort to artificial means. For this purpose Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is very effectual. A few doses will create an appetite and give fresh vigor to the enervated body. For dyspepsia, it is invaluable. Many eminent physicians have doubted whether dyspepsia can be permanently cured by the drugs which are generally employed for that purpose. The Sea Weed Tonic in its nature is totally different from such drugs. It contains no corrosive minerals or acids, in fact it assists the regular operations of nature, and supplies her deficiencies. The tonic in its nature so much resembles the gastric juice that it is almost identical with that fluid. The gastric juice is the natural solvent which, in a healthy condition of the body, causes the food to be digested; and when this juice is not excreted in sufficient quantities, indigestion, with all its distressing symptoms, follows. The Sea Weed Tonic performs the duty of the gastric juice when the latter is deficient. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic sold by all druggists. jy1 eodlm

GET THE GENUINE ARTICLE. The great popularity of "Wilbor's Compound of Cod Liver Oil and Lime," has induced some unprincipled persons to attempt to palm off a simple article of their own manufacture; but any person who is suffering from Coughs, Colds, or Consumption should be careful where they purchase this article. It requires no puffing; the results are its best recommendations, and the proprietor has ample evidence on file of its extraordinary success in pulmonary complaints. The phosphate of lime possesses a most marvelous healing power, as combined with the pure Cod Liver Oil by Dr. Wilbor. It is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty. For sale by A. B. "HE SAYS IT IS TRUE."

SENECA FALLS, Nov. 9, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir,—As you are an entire stranger to me, I want you to know what Vegetine has done for me. Only those who have been raised from death's door can know the value of such a good medicine. I am 58 years of age. Three years ago I was taken sick with what the doctors called Lumbago. For weeks I was confined to my bed. I had three different physicians, without any help. I received no relief; I was a great sufferer; finally I became entirely helpless. The last doctor told me there was no help; he said he might possibly save my life by injecting morphine in my arms and legs. The encouragement for saving my life by having this done was so small a chance I could not consent to run the risk. About this time my son read your advertisement in our paper, a testimony of a person who had been very sick with about the same complaint, and was cured. My son went right away to the apothecary store and bought a bottle of Vegetine. Before I had used the first bottle I found great relief; I could move myself in bed. After taking three bottles I was able to sit up and move about my room. I continued taking the Vegetine, and I was in a few weeks restored to my former health. The Vegetine saved my life after the physicians said there was no help for me. I have had no doctor since. If I feel unwell I take a dose of Vegetine, and I recommend it to my friends.

Your Vegetine ought to be in every family. My doctor was surprised to see me in good health. He says, "Vegetine is a good medicine." I tell him it cured me. He says, "It is true." I cannot feel too thankful. Very gratefully yours,

MRS. CATHERINE COONS,
Seneca Falls, Seneca County, N. Y.

Vegetine.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

If VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

WILL CURE CANKER HUMOR.

ROCKPORT, Mass., March 31, 1876.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Sir,—Last fall my husband got me two bottles of your Vegetine to take for the Canker Humor, which I have had in my stomach for several years. I took it and the result was very satisfactory. I have taken a good many remedies for the Canker Humor, and none seemed to help me but Vegetine. There is no doubt in my mind that every one suffering with Canker Humor can be cured by taking Vegetine. It gave me a good appetite, and I felt better in every respect.

Yours, with respect,
MRS. ELIZA ANN POOLE.

Vegetine.

NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.

SOUTH SALEM, Mass., Nov. 14, 1876.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir—I have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker and Liver Complaint for three years; nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the Vegetine. I am now getting along first-rate, and still using the Vegetine. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to everybody.

Yours truly, MRS. LIZZIE M. PACKARD,
No. 16 Lagrange Street, South Salem, Mass.

VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.
