July 8, 1817.

State of New-Hampshire, Strafford ss.
By the Hon. John Mooney, Esq. judge of the Probate of wills, &c. in and for said county,
To the heirs at law and all interested in the estate of ELIZABETH HODGDON, late of Dover, in said county, widow, deceased,

GREETING.

YOU are hereby notified, that JOHN MAXX, administrator of the estate of said Elizabeth Hodgdon, has petitioned the judge for license to sell so much of the real estate of the said Elizabeth as shall be sufficient to raise the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to pay the debts of the deceased and the demands against her estate, the sums already raised by virtue of a former license from the said judge, being, as he says, insufficient for that purpose, and the said petition will be taken into consideration at a court of probate to be holden at Gilmanton, in and for said county, on the fourth Tuesday of August next, when and where you may appear and object, if you see cause.

By order of the Judge,

W. K. ATKINSON, Reg.

Dover, July 15, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Direct Tax for the year 1816, laid in conformity to the act of Congress, passed on the 5th of March, 1816, upon the following described property, is now remaining unpaid; and that, unless the said tax, with ten per cent in addition thereto, shall be paid to the subscriber on or before Wednesday the 20th day of August next, the said property or so much thereof as shall be necessary to satisfy the said tax, and twenty per cent in addition thereto will be sold at public sale at the house of the subscriber in Gilmanton in the County of Strafford and State of New-Hampshire—the sale to commence at ten o'clock A. M. on the said 20th day of August. A more particular description of the property will be given at the time of sale.

SAMUEL B. FRENCH,

Deputy Collector for the fifth Division in the second Collection District in New-Hampshire.

Great Bargain—Serious Call—& Seasonable Information.

TO be disposed of, on liberal terms, that excellent Farm in Barrington, in the County of Strafford, which the subscriber lately improved, with the mills and mill privileges belonging to the same. Said farm consists of 140 acres of good land, a large proportion of which is under improvement; and suitably divided into mowing, tillage, pasturing, wood and timber land, with a young thriving orchard thereon. The buildings are very commodious, being a new two story dwelling house, mostly finished, with a good cellar under the same, and a convenient barn and corn house. Also a good well of water convenient for the use of a family. This farm is watered by the little Suncook river, which passes through the same, and on which stand his saw-mill, fulling-mill and carding-machine, all in good order, and now in operation. A similar opportunity of making a great bargain, seldom occurs.—Particulars may be known, and a purchase made, by applying to the subscriber in Dover, in said County—*. The subscriber avails himself of this occasion, to solicit each individual indebted to him, by note or account, to make immediate payment of at least, a moiety of what may be due.—The fulling, dying and cloth dressing business carried on, as usual, in all their branches, and on reasonable terms, at his fulling mill, head of the tide, Dover Landing.
