WEATHER PREDICTIONS FOR AUGUST. - Wm. B. eavitt, Fsq. a practical astronomer, of North Grantham in this State, furnishes the Manchester Mirror with weather predictions a month in advance, which, if accurate, are of vastly more practical importance than any records of the weather after it has passed. We give his predictions, that our readers may be able by observation to see whether his system is of any value :

whether his system is of any vatue:
Aug. 1st and 2d. Sadden showers, high winds, with thunder and haif in some places.
3d. Changeable and cooler.
4d. No weather angles formed, but we should indge that yesterday's angle still operates, (cooler.)
5th. The moon influences dry air.
6th. Drying winds

6th. Drying winds.

The atmosphere disturbed by a union of the two magnetic forces, showers and thunder.

8th. Extreme heat, high winds and accumulations about ng clouds.

9th. A fall of temperature.
10th. More heat than yesterday.
11th and 12th. No planetary angles formed with the earth, such as to create any change in he atmosphere, but the moon's alone influence is cool and moist.

yool and moist.

13th Cloudy and miny.
14th. Windy and cool.
15th. Warmer.
16th. Heat and thunder showers.

TO HORSE OWNERS. TO HORSE OWNERS.

BR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivalled by any, in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Seratches, Mange, &c., it will also care speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cared in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical care No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Limment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative case.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worth less. Sold by all dealers.

The Domestic Dyes prepared by Geo, H. Reed & Co. offer the simplest and most perfect means of dyeing household apparel ever presented the public. The unbrace 40 different shades, and include all the new and fishionable colors—and are perfectly fast.; Samples on silk and wool can be seen and the colors precured of J. H. THACHER.
