blood, hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, clogging the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaint and dyspensia are the causes of two-birds of the cases of consumption. Many are now complaining with dull pain in the slip, the loweds sometimes costive and sometimes tooloose, tongue coated, pain in the shoulder black, feeling sometimes very restless, and at other times drows; the boot that is taken lies heavily on the stonach, accompanied with acidity and helching of wind. These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach for a torpid liver. Persons so affected, it they take one or two heavy colds, and if the lungs, liver and stomach colg, and remain torpid and inactive, and before the patient is aware of bis situation, the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, and death is the inevitable result.

Schenek's Pulmonie Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain any opium, or anything calculated to cheek a cough suddenly.
