AUCTION.

To be sold at public auction, at the dwelling house of Jonathan Lock, in Dover, on Monday the 27th day of March instant, all my right and title to a dwelling house and barn, in Durham, on the road leading from Newmarket to Lee, and on land known by the name of the Woodman farm, being the buildings which the subscriber's family now improves—also all my right to five acres of land near said buildings.—Conditions of sale to be made known at time and place.

THOMAS CHESLEY.
Dover, March 17th, 1809.

To be sold at public auction, by virtue of a license from the Hon. Judge of Probate for the county of Strafford, on Tuesday the 4th day of April next, at 2 o'clock P. M. at the dwelling-house of MOLLY PITMAN in Madbury, so much of the real estate of JOSEPH PITMAN, late of said Madbury, deceased, as shall be sufficient to raise the sum of five hundred dollars and incidental expenses. Said land lies in Madbury, on the west side of the road leading from Madbury to Barrington, and is well calculated for mowing, tillage and pasturing. Said land will be sold with certain incumbrances thereon. Also, a blacksmith's shop standing on the East side of the road leading from Madbury meeting house to Barrington. Conditions of sale made known at time and place.

MOLLY PITMAN, Adm'r.
Madbury, March 17, 1809.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that there will be sold at public vendue at the gaol in Dover, on Tuesday the 28th day of March instant, at two of the clock in the afternoon, all my right and title that I have in and to, sixty-three acres in a second Division lot of land in Rochester, it being drawn to the right of Ebenezer Varney, and is part of the lot where I now live.—And also about four acres of land in the Jones lot, to called, in Rochester. And also fifteen acres of land in Lebanon, which I purchased of Abraham Cook.

STRAFFORD, ss. JOHN MOONEY, Esq. judge of the probate of Wills, &c. in and for said County.

To the heirs at law of the estate of Lewis WESTWORTH late of Brookfield, in said county deceased, and all interested in said estate.

GREETING.
YOU are hereby notified that BENJAMIN WATSON the administrator on said estate, has petitioned the said Judge for licence to sell the whole of the real estate that was of the said Lewis Westworth consisting of one acre of land with a small dwelling house and shop thereon standing, situate in said Brookfield, to pay the debts of said deceased, said administrator having stated that the personal estate is insufficient for that purpose, and that the sale of a part and not the whole of the said real estate would be very injurious to all persons interested therein, and said petition will be taken into consideration at a court of probate next to be holden at Dover, at the dwelling house of Miss Peggy Gage on the 13th day of April next, when and where you will object if you see cause.—Dated at Dover the 14th day of March 1809.

By order,
W. K. ATKINSON, Register.

TAKE NOTICE.

THE subscriber requests all who are indebted to him on note, or account, to call and settle the same immediately, as all his demands of more than three months standing, which remain unpaid, on the first day of May next, will be given to an attorney for collection.
