Allen Family

WILLIAM¹ ALLEN (d. 1686) m. (c1639) ANN GOODALE (c1618-1678)

MARTHA² ALLEN (1646-1718) m. RICHARD HUBBARD (D. 1681)

William¹ Allen (d. 1686) and Ann (Goodale) Allen (c1618-1678)

WILLIAM¹ ALLEN was born in England, perhaps about 1615, and appeared in Salisbury, Mass. in 1639, when he participated in the first division of town lands. He practiced his trade as a house carpenter in Salisbury for the rest of his life.¹

ANN² GOODALE (RICHARD¹) was born in England about 1618.²

William Allen and Ann Goodale were probably married in early 1639, since their first known child was born in January 1640.

Ann Allen died in May, 1678.³

William married, as his second wife, Alice (_____) (Roper) Dickinson, widow of John Roper and John Dickinson.⁴

William Allen of Salisbury made his will on 16 Apr 1674 and added a codicil on 7 Nov 1676. He mentions his wife Ann [the will and codicil were made before she died]; his sons John, William, Benjamin, Joseph, Richard, and Jeremiah; his daughters Abigail Wheeler, Hannah Ayers, Mary Hewes, and Martha Hubbard; his son[-in-law] George Hewes; and his brother Goodale.⁵

William Allen widowed Alice for the third and last time when he died in Salisbury on 18 Jun 1686.⁶ Administration was granted on his estate on 22 Jul 1686 in Boston.⁷ The inventory of his estate totaled £280.17s.⁸

Alice Allen died on 1 Apr 1687.⁹

William and Ann (Goodale) Allen had the following children, all born in Salisbury:

John² Allen was accused of raping Ann Chase and thereby fathering her child in 1669. daughter of AQUILA and ANN (WHEELER) CHASE, q. v. He was probably the Lieutenant John Allen who was wounded in a fight against the French and Indians at Maquoit in 1691. In 1692, he testified against the accused witch Susanna Martin, although in the same year he and his wife signed a petition supporting Mary Bradbury, another accused witch. [Davis Mass. & Maine Families, 1:8]
